The kitchen features white cabinetry with wooden accents on the drawers and upper cabinets. The countertop is made of light-colored wood. On the left, there is a four-burner gas stove with a stainless steel range hood above it. The backsplash is composed of white square tiles with small, decorative floral tiles interspersed. The lower cabinets have silver handles and are decorated with sunflower stickers. A wooden cutting board and a red pepper are visible on the counter near the sink.

A large window with white frames and light-colored curtains provides a view of a bright yellow wall and greenery outside. The window is positioned above a double-basin stainless steel sink with a chrome faucet. To the right of the window, there are shelves holding various kitchen items, including a wooden fish-shaped wall hanging and several small ceramic containers.

A set of open wooden shelves is mounted on the wall to the right of the window. The shelves hold several small ceramic jars, a wooden cutting board, and other kitchen accessories. A wooden fish-shaped wall hanging is also visible on the wall below the shelves.

A dining area is visible in the foreground, featuring a table covered with a light blue tablecloth and two orange upholstered chairs. To the right, there is a wooden shelving unit with various kitchen items, including a white ceramic pitcher with a rooster design and a small white figurine. A window with white curtains is visible in the background, showing a view of a yellow wall and greenery.

Three circular decorative plates are mounted on the wall above the window. The plates feature various designs, including a rooster, a fish, and a landscape scene. The text on the plates is partially legible, with "PESCOPOLITANO" and "MONTA" visible.
